Richard Duker: Aragones
Fast Facts:

- Camino Aragones is in NE Spain, south of Camino Frances. My route was 175 km.
- Camino Aragones begins at the Somport Pass at the French border and intersects the Camino Frances at Puente La Reina, Spain.
- I walked in mid-September 2016.
- I took 8 days, but many people do it in 7.
- Contact email: dduker2001@yahoo.com
Somport - at the French-Spanish Border

A bus runs from Jaca
1st Stage - The first day has an 800m descent. Looking east to France.
2nd stage - The albergue in the village of Arres, pop 40
3rd Stage-Ruesta, abandoned since 1959, but good albergue. Pop 2
Some parts of route are wide...
While much of the Camino is narrow
Recommend detour - The famous Canyon Foz de Lumbier
Pilgrims enjoying dinner at the cafe in Tiebas